JAYNE'S JOTTINGS

The garden is beginning to come alive: Daffodils are in flower and so are snowdrops of course. I am also pleased to see my Hellebores putting on a good show: -

Gardening at the moment is just not happening. I seem to be only checking on my fuchsias, and that is not happening very often. I am hoping that now I am seeing signs of Spring and all this new growth, it will encourage me to be a little more proactive!

POEM OF THE MONTH

After a very successful BIG GARDEN BIRDWATCH, I spotted this poem in the Garden News edition – 11th February 2023 – I could definitely relate to it: -

TO BIRDWATCH OR NOT TO BIRDWATCH by Janice Lock

*It's time to do the Birdwatch
Now don't it come round quick?
With my notebook at the ready
For an hour I'll be slick.
Whilst watching all
our feathered friends
dancing in sunlight
Just as I get comfortable
they disappear from sight.*

*With the patience of a heron waiting frozen to the spot
I sit and wait here patiently,
my stomach in a knot.
'Cos how can I do Birdwatch
when they've suddenly taken flight?
Perhaps I should go covert
and wait until tonight!*

GROWING FUCHSIAS

This month we should all be receiving our FREE CUTTINGS. Remember there is a class at our Annual Show for your unnamed FREE CUTTING. Everyone has been given the same cultivar and the aim is to grow it to show standard in just one season. The name of the cultivar will be revealed on show day.

SHOW NEWS

2023 SCHEDULE DUE OUT SHORTLY

After the Committee viewed the new proposed venue for our show this year, it is hopeful that the 2023 Schedule will soon be in publication. It was feared that we may have to reduce the number of classes, but following a further inspection of the premises, it was decided that this is not going to be the case.

WOOL – WANTED!

As you may be aware the directive this year is to raise funds to help cover the loss from last year's show. Christine, Carol and myself (mostly Christine and Carol) are busy knitting and crocheting so that we can sell hand crafted items at Craft Fayres in aid of the Society.

Therefore, if anyone has any spare balls of wool they do not want and would like to donate, please bring them along to any of our monthly meetings.

Many Thanks x

USED STAMPS – WANTED!

If anyone has any used stamps – I'd be glad to take them off your hands. Bob collects these and sends them off to the RSPB.
